LIMESTONE ROCK MYSTERY SOLVED

In an earlier 'Elliston Echo' I asked if anyone knew anything about a large limestone rock that many years ago stood somewhere on the side of the road between Oaklands and Elliston.

From the information and comments I have received the 'Rock' stood on the corner, near the site of Locks Well turnoff. The following was painted on it, with dark blue or black paint -

'10 MILES TO ROBBIES PUB'

(maybe not the exact wording but similar).

Thank you for all the calls. Audine

ELLISTON COURTS REDEVELOPMENT

Application time
Can you help with the following?

1. Letters of support: Why we need the courts in Elliston

- From netball, tennis, basketball clubs
- From Elliston Area School students, teachers & families
- From businesses
- From tourists & wider community

Please address letters:

'To whom it may concern'

2. Photos: to show why we need to keep the courts and how important they are to our community

Eg Netball finals time, matches and practice sessions; basketball; tennis
(NOTE: Photos need to be at least 1MB in size)

3. History: for background

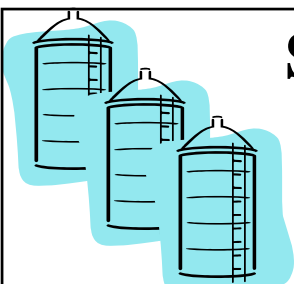

- Why the courts were built
- Who did the work
- Photos and anecdotes

Alive & Kicking - Getting the most out of life!

To coincide with Senior's Month in October and Every Generation Festival 2011 a morning tea for over 50s will be held in Elliston to raise awareness of the importance of maintaining good mental health, physical activity and social connectedness into the later years in life.

The morning tea aims to:

*Improve the overall health and well being of the participants.
Provide health information relative to this age group.
Provide a positive environment for social connectedness.
There will be two speakers during the morning tea that will discuss ways to keep your mind and body active and healthy.
Free resources from Beyondblue and Alzheimer's SA will be available on the day and a spokesperson for Alzheimer's SA will be happy to answer any individual questions.*

There will also be a Tai Chi demonstration with the option of joining in and giving it a go!

*Date: Tuesday 11 October
Time: 10.00 am – 12.00 pm
Venue: Elliston Golf Club*

Free Morning Tea provided

Come along and enjoy the fun!

This event is in partnership and supported by COTA – Every Generation Festival 2011
