It's lizard / snake time again!

We have an amazing variety including Sleepy's, Bluetongues, Nettle Dragons, Bearded Dragons and even Thorny Devils coming out of hibernation and moving into the sunshine to get warm.

Most of these are vegetarian or snail/slug/ant eaters.

The roads are a hot spot for them and unfortunately many get run over along with their relatives SNAKES. Snakes like to eat mice—given the recent mouse plague that has been devastating crops and stock feed, every live snake counts. (It has been estimated that each brown snake is worth up to $6000 for a grain producer).

There is no justification for running over either out on the open road, so please do our environment a favour, don't run over our native fauna!

Get the Most Out of Life!

To coincide with Seniors Month in October, a morning tea for over 50's will be held aiming at raising awareness of the importance of maintaining good mental health, physical activity and social connectedness into the later years in life.

The morning tea aims to:

- Improve the overall health and well being of the participants
- Provide health information relative to this age group, and
- Provide a positive environment for social connectedness

BBQ Rules

We are about to enter the summer and BBQ season. Therefore it is important to refresh your memory on the etiquette of this sublime outdoor cooking activity, as it's the only type of cooking a 'real' man will do, probably because there is an element of danger involved. When a man volunteers to do the BBQ the following chain of events are put into motion:

Routine

The woman buys the food

The woman makes the salad, prepares the vegetables and makes the dessert.

The woman prepares the meat for cooking, places it on a tray along with the necessary cooking utensils and sauces, and takes it to the man who is lounging beside the grill - beer in hand.

Here comes the important part.

THE MAN PLACES THE MEAT ON THE GRILL.

More Routine

The woman goes inside to organise the plates and cutlery

The woman comes out to tell the man that the meat is burning. He thanks her and asks her if she will bring another beer while he deals with the situation.

Important again

THE MAN TAKES THE MEAT OFF THE GRILL AND HANDS IT TO THE WOMAN

More routine

The woman prepares the plates, salad, bread, utensils, napkins and sauce and brings them to the table.

After eating, the woman clears the tables and does the dishes.

And most important of all

Everyone PRAISES the MAN and THANKS HIM for his efforts.

The man asks the woman how she enjoyed 'her night off'. And, upon seeing her annoyed reaction, concludes that there's just no pleasing some women.

The Elliston Echo is published on the first Wednesday of each month, if you have a community notice or some interesting news you would like to share with the community, please email, fax or drop into the centre by 2pm on that Wednesday.
